Job Description:

The worship leader intern at Cedar Creek COG is responsible for organizing, leading, and developing the music ministry of our church—particularly during our worship services. The worship leader intern should play an active role in the overall flow of our worship services. The worship leader intern is overseen by the senior pastor and council (leadership team) of the church. The worship leader intern ought strive to demonstrate a growing relationship with Jesus, and be committed to the Spirit's leading.

SPECIFIC JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Choose a combination of both slower and upbeat songs, some of the songs should coordinate with the teaching/sermon. Work towards having songs selected two weeks in advance. Introduce and practice new songs with the praise team at least one week in advance. On average 4-5 songs are needed for a service.
- Recruit, train, teach, and schedule praise team members.
- Lead a weekly practice for all services.
- Prepare in advance all slides, music material, and or other material that is needed for the music.
- Select and send out song lists by the Tuesday before the service.
- Meet weekly with Pastor and/or other staff for future planning and leadership development.
- Come Sundays early and well prepared to lead the service.
- Come to Council meetings when needed.
