
Key Accountabilities

- Work in cooperation with the leadership team to encourage spiritual growth in our church family, and specifically the children and youth of Greenwood Christian Church (GCC). This will include, but will not be limited to, the nursery, Sunday school, junior worship, and youth groups.
- Maintain and enforce the children's safety and security policies and procedures as designed for GCC.
- Plan activities, events, and service projects to develop community among our current youth while attracting other youth. Develop short- and long-term goals for the growth of our youth.
- Promote and encourage youth participation in larger events such as summer camps, conferences, mission trips, activities, and service-minded activities.
- Guide and develop the youth volunteers. The Director must partner with youth volunteers to plan, teach, and organize the youth department. The Director will lead in the selection or preparation of all class materials and curriculum for all ages.
- Lead the creative use and proactive upkeep of youth facilities and materials.
- Care for our youth and their families in a loving manner to help students and families grow their relationship with Christ and stay connected with the church.
- Ensure effective communication between youth leadership, parents, ministers, and elders of GCC.
- Be responsible for the preparation and supervision of the Youth Ministry budget. Report the status of the youth budget and activities at regular Church Board meetings.

Minimum Requirements

- Passionately embody God's Word through daily living, exhibiting good moral character, and practicing regular spiritual disciplines.
- A degree in children's or youth ministry or the equivalent is desired. However, five years of experience in working with youth at various ages, along with demonstrating leadership in coordinating teaching staff and developing curriculum may be substituted for the desired degree.
- Availability to work daily, attend evening activities, and be present on Sundays is expected. The actual number of hours required during any given week will vary.
- Be a skilled and passionate Bible-based teacher.
- Continual professional, spiritual, and academic growth is expected. Additional training courses will be agreed upon mutually.
- Ability to complete any travel required for youth events.

Benefits

- GCC provides an excellent Christian environment in which to work.
- Salary will be based upon qualifications.
- Expected work week: at least some consistent weekly office hours with the understanding that flexibility is needed.
- Education reimbursement is provided through our missions ministry. Dependent upon field of study.
- Vacations/days off dependent on experience and longevity.
